You are also welcome to join the Intercessory Prayer Group that meets in the Ladies' Parlor on Tuesdays at 10:30am.

When we pray for others, we are redirecting our attention away from our own anxieties and toward the real needs of people and situations we cannot control. It trains us to see the world more truthfully, to acknowledge suffering without rushing to fix it, and to place responsibility where it belongs: in trust that God is actively engaged.

At the same time, intercessory prayer changes the one who prays. It exposes our assumptions about who is worthy of care and how outcomes "should" unfold. Praying for someone over time reshapes our posture toward them, softening judgment and sharpening compassion. Intercession binds us to others in a way that cannot be dismissed once the prayer ends. Intercessory prayer is less about influencing God's attention and more about aligning ourselves with God's concern for the world.
